THAN CLIMATE The American prune evidently gained the permanent friendship of the Europeans during its war experiences. The quantity exported frem the United States in the year ending June 30, 1920, was double the average of the war period, and the value in 1920 two and a half times as much as in 1919 and five France, Italy and the Danubian area were the world's chief producers of prunes until the adaptability of the Address Box 65A, Republient, and the production of prunes in California, Oregon and Washington reached 100,000,000 pounds in 1900, 150,000,000 in 1910, 210,000,000 in 1913 and approximately 350,000,000 in 1919, valued at $40,000,000 at the place of production. California produces about fourths of the product of the United States and more than all the balance of the world put together. Argentina and Australia are beginning their cultivation and with a prospect of success, but thus far the United States commands the prune market of the world, and sent abroad in the fiscal year 1920, 114,000,000 pounds, against 59,000,000 in 1919, and 33,000,000 in France, which supplied a half cent tury ago the beginnings of the Appropriate during the war and took last year
